

Key Stage Two SATS Data

As our cohort of children in Year 6 was less than 10 in 2016, we are not allowed to publish the results as it would be possible to identify individual children by their achievements. With the new National Curriculum in place, the tests were very different this year. We are pleased with our results and believe that they represent good progress for the children concerned.